

Details For Mount Washington Family Library Pass Program

Updated: April 15, 2025

Membership Cost: $75

For Mount Washington Observatory:

- Free weather station tour for family with two adults and up to three kids (age 17 and under).
- When Mount Washington State Park is open (Approximate Mid-May to Mid-October).
- The library agrees to ONLY give out the Library Pass or online reservation code twice per day.
- Patrons can book in advance here: <https://mountwashington.org/education/weather-station-tours/>
- A unique code will be sent to each participating library monthly.
- Patrons can also bring the Library Pass to Extreme Mount Washington Museum on the summit (lower level), though space could be limited and advance reservations are recommended.
- Free access to Gladys Brooks Memorial Library (appointments by request).
- Email bfitzgerald@mountwashington.org and kmarsh@mountwashington.org for help or with questions.

For Mount Washington Cog Railway:

- Buy 1 Adult Ticket and get 1 Adult Ticket free.
- Month of June 2025 Only.
- Monday-to-Friday (Saturdays and Sundays Excluded).
- 9:00 AM, 2:00 PM, or 3:00 PM platform A trains.
- Patrons can book online here: <https://www.thecog.com/tickets>
- Each participating library will receive 21 ticket codes. A ticket code can be used ONLY once. Once used, the code expires.
- Patron must purchase tickets online and enter the ticket code at checkout to receive 1 free ticket.
- Email quinn@thecog.com for help or with questions.

For Mt. Washington Auto Road:

- One passenger in each "Drive Yourself" vehicle rides free.
- Month of June 2025 Only.
- Bring printed or digital Library Pass to ticket office at base of Mt. Washington Auto Road to redeem. Please Note: This is not the toll house at the base of the mountain, patrons should bring it across the street to the big lodge building to receive this deal.
- Email kevin@mt-washington.com for help or with questions.